

BOXES

BUSBAR BOX POLYMERIC

Characteristics: multiple derivations through perforating system with spring fixation.

Material: housing and busbars in polymeric materials and contacts in copper alloys with tin-plated surface finish.

Application: in consumer connection branches, power input panels and connection of concentric cables, and can be installed next to the secondary power network or internally in buildings, residences and commerce.

